17 Local Teen-Agers to Attend Red Cross Leadership Session

Seventeen Torrance teen-agers will be among the more than 150 high school students who will depart via chartered buses Monday for a five-day "work-play" session at Camp Seely, the high school Red Cross Leadership Training Center in the San Bernardino mountains.

This will be the second of four such sessions which run through July 21 with a total attendance of more than 700 junior and senior high school students from throughout the Los Angeles area expected.

GEORGE POST, Torrance-Lomita Red Cross branch chairman, says the delegates from here were chosen by the administrators and faculties of the schools they will represent.

The high school campers will include Dennis Champion and Paul Johnson, Torrance High; John McTee, Larry Barton, Beverly Dietz and Jaynell Lang, Narbonne; Richard Burgar, Manny Perez and Marga Lorenzen, Banning; Tom Adkins and Rick Coulter, South; Bill Owen, Robert Snyder, Gene Eichenberg and Janet Smuland, North; Linda Dancoes and Thereso Osburn, Bishop Montgomery.

Thirty-seven junior high delegates from 20 schools will leave on July 16 for a week at Camp Seely.

THEY ARE Glenn Hellyer and Denise Woods, Evelyn Carr; Alan Brackett and Karen Houk, Magruder; Truman Coggins, Larry Carlton and Connie Sears, Fleming; Hill Reyes and Pat Troxel, Stephen White; Deborah Lifton, Torrance; David Peterson and Janet Rollins, Eeaside; Janet Anderson, Jefferson; Tom Cassida and John Bauer, Edison; Pamela Beth Johnson, Casimir; Richard Solomon and Marilyn Brown, Perry.

Others are Mark Carpenter and Phyllis Piekutowski, Madrona; John Black and Susan Hennrick, Anza; Nancy Coffey, Howard Wood; Dale Braithwaite and Polly Laird, Madison; Raymond Bigness and Linda Keenan, Arlington; John Nourse and Ginger Meyers, Fern-Greenwood; Mike Levanis and Marla Klimeczko, Riviera; Greg Leonard and Cynthia Duff, Meadow Park; Lynn Gibson and Joanne Myers, Hamilton; Steven Padoris and Shirley Hughes, Hillside.

THIS IS the 15th consecutive summer that the camp, which costs the delegates nothing, has been sponsored by Red Cross in cooperation with the various boards of education in Los Angeles County.

ARC branch chairman Post describes the training center as "a summer camp of unusual nature; five, fully packed days of fun and work—recreational and cultural activities, spiced with instruction and orientation in all phases of Red Cross services."

Smits Named To Red Cross Board Post

J. E. Smits, former administrative director of Harbor General Hospital, has been elected to the board of directors of the Los Angeles Red Cross chapter.

Smits, active in the Torrance-Lomita ARC branch activities, has continued his support of the organization working in various volunteer capacities.

A past president of the Hospital Council of Southern California and of the California Hospital Assn., Smits, in addition to his administrative post at Harbor General, headed Children's Hospital and is now regional administrator for the Kaiser Foundation hospitals.

Safety IQ Test In New Booklet

Are you a motorist with a high safety I.Q.? How do you adapt yourself to the problems of freeway driving?

Answers to these and other questions on traffic safety are contained in a new booklet, the "California Freeway Handbook," published by the new car dealers of Southern California.

Available to the public free of charge, copies may be obtained at the nearest office of the California Highway Patrol, or by writing: John Wagner, Public Information Officer, California Highway Patrol, 437 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles 4, Calif.

Dalmatian Chorus Concert Thursday

The Dalmatian Chorale of San Pedro, directed by Branko Porobic, will present a concert of Yugoslavian folk tunes at Marymount College on Thursday, in Palos Verdes Estates.

Included in the program by the 33 mixed-voice a capella group will be "Croatian Melodies" by Zganec, "Macedonian Suite" by Porobic, "Listen Darling" by Binicki and "Chorale Suite" by Mokranjac.

The public is invited to attend the concert, which begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Student-Faculty Center. There is no admission charge.
